

Please do not diminish the law that has been established in Indiana regarding unwanted telephone calls from telemarketers and other businesses selling over the phone. Since the inception of the law I do not receive these calls interrupting and harrassing me trying to sell me things I do not want or need.